

Formulierungshilfen - Textanalyse

Benennen

- The author's main arguments are ...
- The most important arguments are ...
- Without going into detail, the text makes clear that ...
- With reference to ... the writer's main point is ...
- First, ... / First of all, ...
- Secondly,... / Thirdly, ...
- Finally, ... / Last of all, ...
- In addition to that, ...
- Moreover, ...

Herausstellen

- The author/writer describes the situation of...
- The reader is informed about...
- The author tries to persuade the reader to...
- The writer tells the reader how to ...
- He explains the situation of....
- The author attacks the idea that...
- He doubts the evidence for...
- The writer criticizes the attitude of....
- He questions the facts about...
- The writer defends the argument that...
- The writer attacks the idea that...
- He doubts the evidence for...
- He warns of...

Bewerten

- The writer has a critical/objective/skeptical view of...
- He seems to have a neutral/balanced attitude towards...
- The author speaks in an exaggerated (übertrieben, überspitzt) way about...
- He is convinced of the fact that...
- On the whole, it can be said that... / To sum up, ...

